

Loop 1A – The Caledonia County BuyWay Loop

Suggested Route of Travel: From Barre head east on Rt. 302 to Vt. Rt. 25, then follow it east to Bradford and the intersection with Rt. 5. This route follows the ancient Coos Indian trail, which was one of the few East/West Indian trails to have existed in prehistoric Vermont. You will turn right to see one shop, then take Rt. 5 north back to Rt. 302 in Wells River. Cross the Connecticut river to Woodsville N. H., following Rt. 302 east to Littleton. After visiting the shops and perhaps lunch, head back west on 302 a short distance and bear right onto NH Rt. 135/18. A little ways down the road you will bear left following Rt. 135/18 west. Follow Rt. 18, bearing right, back across the Connecticut River into Lower Waterford Vt., then to the intersection with US Rt. 2, turning left, which will take you to the shops in St. Johnsbury. After visiting these shops, take Rt. 5 north to visit the shops in Lyndonville. Then return to St. Johnsbury on Rt. 5 to US Rt. 2, taking it east to West Danville. In West Danville take Rt. 15 to Hardwick, then 14 south to Barre.
